POSTSCRIPT

Risk of Indian Banks

Increasing the share of non-interest income may not lead to improving the stability of private sector banks, but the diversification of income to fee-based services can increase bank profits and reduce instability. page 44

Force Majeure and Fairness

Examination of the contractual disputes from various sectors, in the times of pandemic, points towards conditional justification for force majeure clause along with the instances of its disingenuous use. page 37

Rental Housing in Indian Cities

Projects under the Affordable Rental Housing Complex scheme may not be able to compete with existing private rental housing options, and profit-centring in the scheme will conflict with the aims of inclusion and tenant protection. page 15

Primary Education in West Bengal

The state government's initiatives to achieve universal foundational literacy and numeracy in all primary schools and anganwadis are reviewed. page 12

Reforming the Judiciary

Drawing upon the debates on the Supreme Court reforms in the US, Indian experience of the single-point, agenda-driven reform is analysed for its limitations. page 10

CURRENT STATISTICS

Precarious Work in Print Media

Rural stringers constitute the most vulnerable and invisibilised category of print media journalists whose work helps the media firms minimise news production costs while the work conditions remain deplorable. page 36

Vaccines and Legal Issues

A robust and equitable No-Fault Compensation System for COVID-19 vaccine injury would pre-empt product liability complaints against the government, and could build trust among citizens about government-initiated immunisation programmes. page 17

Agrarian Politics in West Bengal

The nature of the dependence of small and marginal farmers on the local elite and the dynamics of decision-making at the gram panchayat are analysed. page 42

POSTSCRIPT

Revisiting K N Raj's Writings

An assessment is made on how K N Raj would have weighed in on some of the major contemporary economic issues such as the trade policy, farm crisis, and reprivatization of public sector banks on the basis of his contributions. page 33

Rethinking Federalism

Based on the distinction made between "diversity claims" and "equality claims," a study argues that India's democratic success has remained a poor match to its federal success. page 51

Disputing Airport Management

The ongoing controversy regarding the leasing of the Thiruvananthapuram airport to the private sector and the tussle between the centre and the state government of Kerala is examined. page 23

Ill-conceived Measures

The article argues that the new recommendations for monthly length/height measurements might derail the existing system of data collection and management, and lead to misreporting on malnutrition. page 21

Improving Bank Performance

A study explores the relationship between income diversification and risk-adjusted returns for banks in India for the period from 2000 to 2017. page 10

SPECIAL ARTICLES

CURRENT STATISTICS

Squeeze on Agricultural Labourers

With the diminishing employment opportunities and farm wage rates, the agrarian crisis in Punjab has pushed the agricultural labourers towards low earnings and debt traps, leading them towards death by suicide. page 49

Sanitation Work and the Pandemic

The current crisis provides conditions that could establish a discourse and practice of sanitation and a culture of public health in India, grounded in a paradigm beyond that of caste. page 35

Neo-Malthusianism Redux

The belief among sections of the elite that a much-needed population check is "naturally" occurring through the spread of the disease, helps erase government failure, and treats urban slums and poor clusters as dispensable. page 17

Ascendant LDF in Kerala

The main factors that resulted in the overwhelming victory of the Left Democratic Front in the local body elections in terms of their significance for assembly elections are analysed. page 10
