A set of seven articles examine the implications of changes in city infrastructures in Hubli–Dharwad and Delhi, the state's flexible territorialisation strategies in peri-urban Kolkata and Hyderabad, and the central government's Smart Cities Mission; the use of street spaces for informal alternative learning; and recent perspectives on the urban transformation of Ahmedabad. page 39 onwards

'Maleness' and 'Templeisation'

A look at the interwoven themes of deep-rooted masculinity in the practices of pilgrimage and the process of constituting the temple as a standard form of worship place in the issue of women's entry to the Sabarimala temple page 12

Mohalla Clinics in Delhi

An analysis of the community clinics in the capital shows that it has filled a major gap in access to health services, but there are a number of concerns that need the Aam Aadmi Party government's attention. page 16

Crisis in Sri Lanka

The future of Sri Lanka's democracy will be decided by the only functioning state institution in the country at present: the judiciary. page 25

CURRENT STATISTICS

Redesigning the Power Subsidy

The highly inequitable mode of power subsidy in Haryana needs to be rationalised to benefit small and marginal farmers, check depletion of groundwater, and restore balance in the cropping pattern. page 32

Distribution of Fiscal Resources

A look at the overall central transfers and spending with implications for regional welfare, and a new methodology suggested for measuring their vertical and horizontal components page 41

Caste and Socio-spatial Segregation

A study of a neighbourhood of Balmikis in central Delhi to explore how they perceive the urban space and how they think they are perceived by others shows the impact of segregated settlements on Dalits' lives in metropolitan cities. page 50

Agrarian Crisis Counts in Elections

The Congress's victory in the assembly poll battle in Madhya Pradesh is as much due to its electoral promises to farmers as to a smarter election campaign. page 12

Widening the Source Base of History

In the times of the smartphone, historians would do well to engage with visual materials produced by the state and society, and integrate them in writing histories. page 16
