The Point

India Inc. Shines in Q4

Nifty and Sensex companies report extraordinary growth in net profits in the January-March quarter of FY21. One reason is the low base of last year

12

Job Losses Highest Since May 2020

India's labour participation rate fell another 0.2 per cent in April. This is the lowest after May 2020. The reason is strict lockdowns in several states that have brought large parts of the economy to a halt

Electoral Verdict in Assam

The creation of a class of beneficiaries through populist welfare schemes and the consolidation of the communal polarisation that blunted the anti-CAA sentiment, contributed to the BJP's return to power. page 19

COVID-19 and MSMEs in India

Responding to a primary firm survey, about 69% of businesses reported that they would not survive for another quarter, while almost a third said they will not survive beyond a month. page 28

Profiteering by Vaccine Companies

Private producers are dictating terms despite the public funds and research which have gone into the making of vaccines due to the policy level reliance on philanthro-capitalism that has hollowed out public health. page 12

Historic Mandate in Kerala

The left's victory is not just electoral but also an ideological one which enriches the debates about an alternative model of development and rebuffs the social conservative consolidation. page 22

Affordable Cancer Medicines

The government's unwillingness to explore compulsory licensing or other policy options to control the prices is analysed and the need to make the market more competitive and price-sensitive is emphasised. page 48

Collegium and Transparency

Discussion on collegium reforms should factor in the collegium's failure to establish a meaningful threshold of transparency in its disclosure practices despite its stated intentions. page 33

Domestic Workers in the Pandemic

Lockdown has exposed the cracks within the pre-existing nature of the domestic work and the everyday vulnerabilities faced by the workers. page 17

Election Commission under Scrutiny

Considering the health of democracy, and that of the voters especially during the elections in pandemic times, it is important to bring the question of "trust" into the debates on the ECI's functioning. page 13

Caste and Employment

In the regular urban labour market, discrimination accounts for a substantial part of the gross earnings differential between the Scheduled Castes and higher castes, with occupational discrimination being considerably more important than wage discrimination. page 55

Lessons from the 1918 Pandemic

The response of the administrative machinery and the health infrastructure in the Mysore state to the influenza pandemic is analysed. page 32

Challenges on the Economy Front

To address the downturn exacerbated by the pandemic, fiscal policy has to bear the greater burden of macroeconomic stimulus. page 17

Money, Banking & Finance

Five articles examine the changing objectives and nuances of monetary policy; question some of the standard results of mainstream economics; review the experience of Asset Reconstruction Companies; investigate how the dynamics of the real sectors affect and contribute to the path of inflation; and analyse the issues plaguing the Indian corporate bond market. pages 32 onwards

COVID-19 and Sexual Minorities

Invisibility engendered by discrimination and exacerbated by the pandemic has placed sex workers and the transgender community at a greater risk of harm. page 26

Intensification of Systemic Risks

Poorly regulated big banks choose to exploit the lax regulatory environment to engage in risky practices. page 10

REAL ESTATE SPECIAL

32 • HOUSE THAT

Four years after finding a new owner, Housing has become a ₹100-crore brand. Can it now become the biggest?

36 • AN EASIER SALE

The real estate business is fast consolidating in favour of large, branded developers

39 • WORK IS WHERE THE DESK IS

Co-working spaces, with flexible rentals and policies adapting to the new realities of work, are finding favour with large corporations and their employees

44 • COMMERCIAL REAL ESTATE: HOPEFUL & HOLDING ON

Despite a dip in leasing activity for commercial and office spaces, developers remain optimistic, as corporates explore hybrid models of reoccupying offices

48 • DATA CENTRES: BUILT TO LAST

India's massive data consumption, the coming of 5G technology and the move towards data localisation make data centre development the go-to business

50 • WORK FROM HOME, OR NOT?

A year on, the model evokes survivor's guilt, productivity shame, lack of motivation for some, while for employers, it's a situation far from ideal

IN FOCUS

54 • BACK IN THE RACE

Behind the remarkable turnaround of Tata Motors, now India's third-largest car maker with a 69 percent growth in sales in FY21

PG. 22

SLOW AND STEADY: THE BROOKFIELD WAY

How the investment management firm focussed on building operational capability in India for five years, cut its first deal in 2014, and managed to deploy $11.5 billion in the country in a pandemic year

Anuj Ranjan launched and headed Brookfield's India operations. Last October, he was elevated as global head of business development, head of Europe and Asia-Pacific private equity, and CEO of South Asia and the Middle East for Brookfield Asset Management

Housing is our biggest revenue earner, says Dhruv Agarwala

Dextrus, a co-working space, offers 560 seats in Mumbai

59 • THE PURSE, AND CURSE, OF TIGER

Tiger Global's aggressive big bets this year might do a world of good for the firm, although riding the beast can prove tricky at times for founders

62 • THE 200-CRORE VACCINATION CONUNDRUM

How realistic is the Centre's ambitious plan to administer 200 crore doses of the Covid-19 vaccine by year-end?

66 • CRYPTO CONFUSION

India's cryptocurrency industry is in a regulatory flux following fresh concerns voiced by the RBI governor

70 • A NEW MILESTONE

Paytm, set to kick off a $3 billion Indian IPO in July, does not rule out a potential US listing. It could see Chinese investor Alibaba Group dilute its stake or even exit

CROSS BORDER74 • 30 UNDER 30: ASIA 2021

As Asia sees the light at the end of the Covid-19 tunnel, activists, entrepreneurs, scientists and young leaders are hard at work realising the new normal

88 • REVERSING THE FLOW

Michael S Smith bet big—and wrong—that the US would need to import liquefied natural gas. Now he's poised to mint money from his $14 billion export terminal

90 • PICKUP GAME

Five years ago, Rafał Brzoska was on the brink of bankruptcy. Now Poland's parcel king is a billionaire, having bet the future of ecommerce isn't home delivery

92 • THE ROAD LESS TRAVELLED

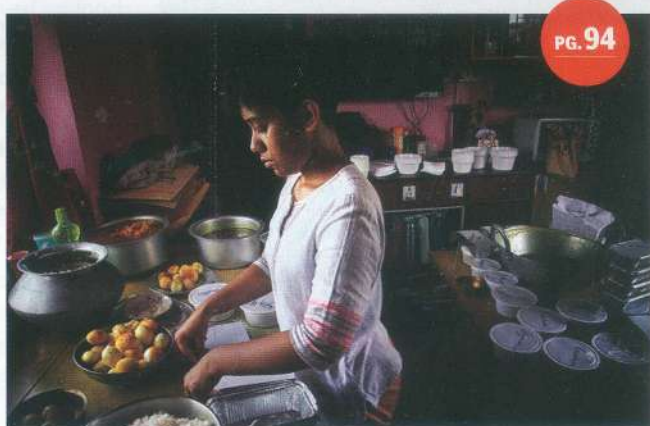

Cloudinary, the maker of marketing software, was profitable from day one and has bootstrapped its way close to a billion-dollar valuation

LIFE94 • COMPASSION: COOKED, PACKED AND DELIVERED

Srabasti Ghosh, a performing artiste, has been providing home-cooked meals to Covid-19-affected families in North Kolkata

Stella Bennett's single 'Supalonely' went viral and topped global music charts

An already floundering economy has been hit by the COVID-19 second wave. Can the PLI Scheme boost growth through manufacturing and exports?

6 Graphically Speaking: The PLI Scheme has its advocates and critics, and before you choose a side, here is a detailed update

10 View: GMO's Ben Inker explains while speculative booms provide both entertainment and outsized profit, they do generally burst painfully

14 Feature: Pumped by venture capital, there seems to be no end to Zomato's bleeding bottomline. Now, it plans to raise public money at an outrageous valuation

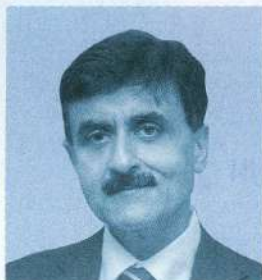

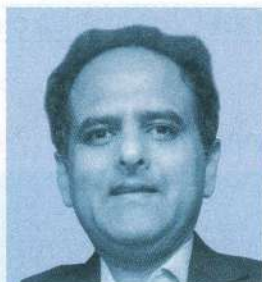

46 Sector Watch: Food processing is the latest industry to be included for production linked incentives. A shortlist of companies that could benefit from this move

54 Feature: Building a presence in the premium bakery and biscuit segments has not been a piece of cake for Mrs Bectors Food Specialities

60 Investing: With promoter holding of nearly 75%, the management of AVT Natural Products can get away with being tight-lipped. Will the stock be back in favour?

38 Sector Watch: At Outlook Business' Advantage India Summit, industry leaders discuss how the country can capitalise on its strengths in Specialty Chemicals
