Closing the Gaps for MSMEs

Measures that will help this priority sector tide over the lockdown crisis are suggested, and its changed definition in the relief package is analysed. page 10

Saving Lives and Livelihoods

A clear strategy is outlined for dealing with the virus and the economy, and for identifying industries and areas where limited economic activities can resume. page 38

Controlling Medical Inflation

A regulatory mechanism is needed for the dominant private healthcare sector that induces inflationary pressure on household costs and potentially on the government health budget through the insurance route. page 18

Reimagining the Labour Market

If stringent labour laws are the cause of underdevelopment in certain regions, what explains the abysmal condition of labour in the more developed regions where investment is much more? page 33

No 'Factory Reset Buttons'

There is much speculation about how the post-pandemic world will be, but capitalism, or healthcare, or the environment is not an object-like system with specific principles that can be changed at will. page 63

POSTSCRIPT

Capitalism and COVID-19

Since long-run solutions to COVID-19 can barely emerge from outside the interstate systems, there arises a need to reimagine these systems for letting science and technology flourish without the fetters on their ownership. pages 14, 28

Together They Stand

By containing the COVID-19 contagion through decentralised, scientific, and humane policies, Kerala demonstrates the efficacy of participatory governance in handling calamities. page 10

Food Supply during COVID-19

With the PDS supplying barely 5% of India's food consumption, policies should work towards making the private food supply chains rebound, instead of replacing these by government food distribution. page 18

Small Business Meets Big Duty

Debates on the effects of GST on small businesses in India get a unique evidence base from the primary surveys of such enterprises facing this indirect tax reform. page 32

An Old Boys' Club

The additional hierarchy of "masculine" standards of performance deters women loco-pilots in Indian Railways from fully engaging in their job. page 40

MAY 16TH–22ND 2020

Goodbye globalisation

The dangerous lure of self-sufficiency

On the cover

A more nationalistic and self-sufficient era beckons. It won't be richer—or safer: leader, page 7. Pre-existing conditions made covid-19's blow to world trade even more damaging, page 59. There is a limit to how much businesses can prepare for awful surprises, page 61. Could travel zones offer a route to economic recovery? Page 64. Lessons in globalisation, from the small Chinese town that makes half of Japan's coffins: Chaguan, page 47

• On the blink—the EU's bad crisis By failing to face up to its difficulties, the European Union only makes them worse: leader, page 8. The covid-19 pandemic has shown just how little European countries agree on the purpose of the EU: briefing, page 14

• Covid nostra The pandemic is providing organised crooks with fresh opportunities, page 49

• Starting a business in a slump Is now a good time for entrepreneurs? Schumpeter, page 58

MAY 2ND–8TH 2020

The 90% economy

On the cover

Life after lockdowns will be hard in ways that are difficult to imagine today: leader, page 7. The new “nearly normal” will be a long way from the status quo: briefing, page 14. Why America’s unemployed could face a lost decade: Free exchange, page 68

• The case for opening schools The damage to children’s minds of keeping them shut outweighs the risk of infection: leader, page 8. Closing them for covid-19 does lifelong harm and widens inequality, page 52. The young seem to be less likely to catch or pass on the virus, page 54

• Stress-testing emerging markets Our ranking of 66 countries shows which are in peril—and which are relatively safe: briefing, page 62

• A Wuhan whodunnit The pieces of the puzzle of covid-19’s origin are slowly coming to light. How they fit together, though, remains mysterious, page 69. China’s opacity has allowed dangerous conspiracy theories to flourish: leader, page 10

The Global Economy and COVID-19: The Great Lockdown

US will face the most severe recession since the Great Depression and India's real GDP to grow by just 2.0 percent in 2020, says a report from Euromonitor International

BUILDING BRANDS FOR TOMORROW: RETAILERS REIMAGINE CONCEPTS, STRATEGIES

COVID-19 has had an unprecedented impact on the retail industry worldwide.

Such has been the economic toll of the pandemic that many brands witnessed zero revenue for a brief period as consumer focus shifted to buying essential goods. To mitigate the disruption caused by this crisis, Indian retailers will need to devise strategies for the 'now, next and beyond'

22. COVID CRISIS

Impact of the Pandemic on East India Retail

The East India retail industry is facing an acute cash crunch due to a sharp fall in business and operational challenges with low or zero manpower

25. CUSTOMER EXPERIENCE

ShopClues Improvises Portfolio to Reach Consumers in Tier II, III, IV Towns & Cities

ShopClues has taken note of the shift in consumer behaviour in COVID-19 times and has worked towards improvising its product portfolio

26. RETAIL TRENDS

Hyperlocal & Social Commerce: New buzzwords in Apparel Sector Post COVID-19

The big learning which is coming from the Covid-19 pandemic is that social selling is picking up pace. Going ahead, digital commerce is going to become big

28. REPORT

Retail Operations: Safety and Hygiene Measures Post Lockdown

Hygiene and safety will be on the top of the list post the crisis and only organisations that are prepared for the new reality with complete SOPs will be able reap the benefit

30. RETAIL REVIVAL

Jewellery Brands to Reopen Stores in Orange and Green Zones in a Phased Manner
