Budget 2024-25

Ten articles provide a perspective on the likely implications of various budget announcements on India's fisc and macroeconomy. The issues covered include tax policy, public expenditure management, budgetary stance on industrial policy and agriculture, macroeconomic framework for growth, fiscal consolidation, and analysis of the Reserve Bank of India's balance sheet to understand the interaction between fiscal and monetary policy. pages 13-64

R G Hawtrey's Contributions

At least five contributions of Hawtrey have a strong claim to originality but have received scant professional credit, namely the multiplier, the accelerator, quantitative easing, crowding out and the announcement effect of monetary policy. page 183

BRICS and Multipolarity

The economic agenda would continue to be the stimulus for the evolution of the grouping and its contribution to multipolarity. page 10

Banner Culture in Puducherry

The practice of putting banners, which is rooted in and a modern reimagining of the Parai culture, has evolved significantly, adapting to technological advancements and changing social contexts. page 200

On the cover
Kill or be killed is the Middle East's new logic. Deterrence and diplomacy would be better: leader, page 9. In a nine-page special briefing we look at how the region has changed since Hamas rampaged across southern Israel on October 7th 2023. Our coverage examines Israel's ever-expanding conflict with Iran and its proxies, the surprising detachment of most of the Arab world, the unresolved divisions within Israeli society and the radicalisation of a generation of Palestinians, page 14

Will China's stimulus work? It will take more than a spectacular stockmarket rally to revive the economy: leader, page 10. Can the buying frenzy last? Page 61

Ishiba Shigeru: from gadfly to leader Japan's new prime minister promises diplomacy, defence and a dash of social liberalism. But can he control his party? Leader, page 10, and analysis, page 23

Crypto bros v cat ladies How the campaigns are exploiting the battle of the sexes, page 35

Mapping a fruit fly's brain The first "connectome" of the brain of a complex adult animal has just been published, page 68. It is a step towards understanding human brains: leader, page 12
